

Jennifer Holling is a Canadian-born equestrian and accomplished event rider who has competed successfully through the Advanced level of eventing. Originally from Orangeville, Ontario, Jennifer was introduced to three-day eventing in 1989 and went on to become a long-listed member of the Canadian Equestrian Team. She competed at major events including Foxhall, Fair Hill, Radnor, and Jersey Fresh, achieving notable results.

Today, Jennifer is based in Ocala, Florida, where she co-owns Holling Eventing with her husband, Jonathan Holling. In addition to competing, she is passionate about coaching and developing riders and horses, bringing decades of upper-level eventing experience and a strong foundation in equine care, nutrition, and training to her program.
